

Norman Groovefest
Promoting community through Arts, Music, and Human Rights Awareness

Greetings Community Leaders, Vendors, Sponsors and Activists for Human Rights Awareness!

The Groovefest mission is to raise human rights awareness through arts, music and activist speakers from local organizations who inspire us to honor individual freedom and do what we can in our own lives or communities to change things for the better - and to remember the interwoven web of Human Rights that connects all people fighting injustice worldwide. Norman Groovefest has been organizing a free music festival to promote Human Rights awareness since 1986. We are currently the only Human Rights music festival in Oklahoma, and the 2nd longest-running Human Rights music festival in the world.

- Groovefest supports the Human Right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for all no matter your race, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, ability, or political creed.
- We believe that all people benefit with protection from injustice, inequality, and discrimination. It is important to speak up and fight on behalf of the voiceless and vulnerable in our world.
- The only way to fight the Human Rights violations we see in our world is to put our differences aside and unite together against the hate and ignorance at the root of all injustice.

We support local organizations, artists, businesses and musicians that make Norman a thoughtful, thriving place - through music, the arts and a focus on community activism. These local sponsors, musicians, community organizations and volunteers have been the true heart of Groovefest since 1986, generously giving their time in a collected effort to spread Human Rights awareness in our state.

Vendors, organizations, bands, and sponsors are welcome to bring tables, tents, information, and items for sale, donation, or raffle to the park as early as 11am day of the event. (Groovefest will take place rain or shine, but we reserve the right to cancel the event in case of lightning or inclement violent weather.)

Please email Groovefest@gmail.com at your earliest convenience to confirm a spot in the park as space is limited. Completed applications preferably received no later than September 1st, but we will accept applications (dependent on available space) until the Friday before the event. The city mandates a $10 fee for non-food vendors (+ $30 for food vendors if - and only if - the health department chooses to make an inspection). Groovefest itself only hopes for your donation, or your time, so we may continue to promote a healthy local and global community through arts, music, and human rights awareness in the future.

May we always be grateful for our community and the perseverance of all Human Rights Ambassadors.
